With the right tools, you can build the financial future of your dreams.

Achieving Financial Wellness without the right tools can sometimes feel difficult. The good news is your retirement plan has what you need to help you reach the retirement you want.

→ Take control of debt

Log in and visit “My Financial Life,” then click “Tools” and find the Credit and Debt Management tile or call GreenPath at 877-444-5606 to get started today!

If you struggle with debt, don’t worry, you’re not alone! Luckily, Prudential has a solution to help you work through your credit card debt with GreenPath, by providing free sessions with professionals. We’re here to help you save money, build your credit, and plan for the future.

During these one-on-one sessions, debt experts will help you:

- Understand your financial situation and goals
- Explain your debt management options
- Create a custom debt management repayment plan
- Decide if consolidating your plans into a single payment would help you pay off your debt faster and help you save money. There is a monthly fee for the consolidation service.

Not everyone’s a financial whiz. In fact, most Americans aren’t familiar with many financial literacy concepts. That’s why we created Prudential Pathways® webinars. These on-demand 30-minute sessions can help you move forward with confidence. You can watch Pathways webinars any time, anywhere. You’ll learn about financial topics like setting a budget, preparing for emergencies, and saving for retirement.
